So... What did he do? Speaking of the future, the episode ends with a very angry Matt Donovan helping Caroline out of captivity on the news station. I'm not giving up on you. The next time we see him, he's sitting at Lockwood Mansion looking at the fireplace. When he wakes up, he's chained up in the Lockwood Mansion. What did you think of "The things we lost in the fire"? So, whose body did he burn? He calls Tyler, who is back in town for the twins' baby party, and asks him to see Elena. Stefan better take care of Damon soon because he's not doing anything right. He tells Bonnie that her gun is the one that put Julian on the Phoenix Stone, and once you've been tagged with it, like Beau, she'll come after you. I'm not saying that Damon and Stefan should be friends with Julian, but he's been through this whole Phoenix Stone renaissance before; Maybe you have some tips? Bonnie wants to be nice to her, but Matt's rude. from the Phoenix Stone. (I was there to tell Stefan to put a leash on Damon affected by Phoenix Stone.) And, for once, Julian is right. So he sprayed it with gasoline and was about to turn it on when Caroline saved them both. Let's start from the beginning... Damon is where we left him, standing among the bodies of his friends and family. Tyler says not for a hot second, but then takes him to a nearby place (???? Luckily it doesn't take him long to realize that this could be real, so he gives blood to the mortals in the room. (Do vampires have normal, happy dreams?) Damon hopes to receive the regular "repent for what you've done" speech from his little brother, but Stefan says that because of what Damon had to endure at the Hell Stone, he a free pass. He was so consumed, he didn't even notice that Julian was taking over the city. Damon leaves the bar when he sees Henry, but Henry follows him. Damon doesn't want to hear what he has to say, however, so he rips out his heart and sees that he's a complete stranger. He thinks the stone is trying to tell him that he'll never be really happy until Damon is out of his life forever. Damon pulls Elena's coffin out of the dumpster and opens it, only to find Henry.
